JANEL'S JOURNEY

An innovative and captivating fashion connoisseur, Janel Laws was born on the beautiful island of St. Ann, Jamaica. Steeped in a country engulfed by rich heritage and diversity, her unique sense of street culture matched with a keen eye for couture flourishes from a deep understanding of traditional and unconventional style. This delicate balance of the past and the now can be seen in the styling of Laws and Caribbean stars like Rihanna and Nicki Minaj.

Laws' entry into the world of high fashion began as an aspiring model. Her travels and experiences translated to styling, eventually interning with the PRB Showroom. In Spring of 2013, Laws began working at the Fashion Career Fair as an assistant designer and stylist. In October of that same year, Janel became a freelance stylist for Red Stripe Beer where she collaborated with photographers to create illustrative high fashion photography. Currently, Janel consults as a stylist for Koziak Productions.
